

Press Release

Announcing John Hinnant Has Joined ECCRE

Eastern Carolinas Commercial Real Estate (ECCRE) is excited to announce the recent growth of the firm with John Hinnant joining ECCRE as a Vice President. John has been a leader in the private and public sectors of the Local Wilmington Area for the last twenty years. John started off as a small business man and then came to lead the Wilmington Downtown Inc. a governmental agency which focused/focuses on growth, recruiting and attracting to the downtown area of Wilmington business and economic stimulus. John then left to enter the private sector where he entered the commercial real estate brokerage community closing several multi million dollar deals. John also has an appraisal company.

He joined ECCRE as of April 2nd 2018 and is focusing on the following commercial real estate verticals: Office Leasing and Sales, Development and Assemblage.

John enjoys soccer, brewing beer and spending time with his family.